

Michaelyn Conley
nCASE DimensionU & Mathematics Certified Trainer

Michaelyn Conley received her Masters from the University of South Carolina in Secondary Mathematics Education and is currently pursuing her Ed.D. in Curriculum and Instruction. Her undergraduate work in mathematics education was completed at West Virginia University.

Michaelyn has been a public school teacher for more than 20 years, having taught both junior and senior high. She works at Landrum High School in Campobello, South Carolina, where she teaches AP calculus, honors calculus, pre-calculus, algebra I/II, and tech math I/II. Mrs. Conley is AP Calculus Certified.

Ms. Conley has provided outstanding passion and leadership to the educational profession while serving in a variety of important roles throughout her career. To mention a few, she was an instructor for the Alternative Certification of Educators (PACE) Program for the South Carolina Department of Education; a member of the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE) Board of Examiners; a Cherokee County District Mentor Teacher; an Assist Develop Evaluate Professional Teaching (ADEPT) Evaluator for South Carolina's system for monitoring and enhancing the quality of teaching throughout the state; and a department head.

Michaelyn received the following accolades: Cherokee County District Teacher of the Year in 2000, Chamber of Commerce Outstanding Teacher of the Year, and Wal-Mart Teacher of the Year. Michaelyn received National Board Certification in Adolescence and Young Adulthood Mathematics in 2002. Her enthusiasm for and commitment to teaching is obvious not just to her colleagues, but also to her students. In recent years, her students expressed their appreciation for her by voting her Best All-Around Teacher.

Michaelyn is a member of nCASE's national mathematics training staff with specialization in DimensionU's virtual-reality mathematics games.
